You will not be guaranteed a pitch every week. Once signed you are agreeing to be put onto the casual list where you will be contacted at short notice if a pitch becomes free that week. The market officer will strive to let casuals know asap but it might be as little as 1 days' notice. No trader should turn up on a Saturday expecting a pitch unless they have been told by the Market Officer that they have a pitch for that week.

If you change your trade or develop new lines you must fill out a new application form
